

HARMONY-MEIER INSTITUTE

THIRD ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

Community Conversations About Democracy and Equity in Our Schools with Debbie Meier

Join us for problem-solving discussions focused on generating concrete solutions to democracy and equity issues in our local schools.

- Celebration of the life of Ellen Brantlinger, school equity scholar
- Action-orientated community discussion in small groups for all concerned with the importance of community schools
- Record a memory of Ellen Brantlinger for posterity/archiving
- Deborah Meier will provide closing remarks on how we can support thriving student and community centered democratic schools

THURSDAY, APRIL 6

Bloomington High School North Library • 7–8:30 pm

Free cupcakes to the first 86 participants to celebrate Deborah Meier's 86th birthday!

Sponsored by the Harmony-Meier Institute and Indiana Coalition for Public Education/ICPE

A Public Conversation About Public Education in Indiana

What does it mean to be a learner and leader at this historical moment in education?

What makes an effective educator in our diverse, technological society?

What can we do to address the needs of schools and communities?

Experience a lively discussion with these leaders in education:

Jennifer McCormick, Indiana State Superintendent of Instruction

Deborah Meier, Leading Progressive Educator

Terry Mason, Dean of the IU School of Education, Moderator

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

SoE Auditorium • 10–11:15 a.m.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

HARMONY
SCHOOL